KEYNOTE

Dr. Peter Langman

Dr. Peter Langman is a sought-after expert on the psychology of school shooters. His book Why Kids Kill: Inside the Minds of School Shooters (often referred to as:

The Real Story Behind Columbine) examines some of the most horrific school shootings and the multiple factors that turn kids into killers. Dr. Langman who is the head of Kids Peace will offer insight into the minds of school shooters and those who may become one. From divulging the material evidence of notorious school shooters at Columbine and Virginia Tech to addressing the mental states of the violent youths he treats, Dr. Langman shows how to identify early signs of homicide-prone youth and what preventive measures educators, parents and communities can take to protect themselves from a potential tragedy. Dr. Langman has been interviewed hundreds of times by media outlets in the United States, Canada, Europe,

Australia, and the Middle East. He has appeared on CBS-TV, CNN, Fox, and the BBC. His research on school shooters has been featured in articles carried by The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, Forbes, USA Today, Education Week, Junior Scholastic, MSNBC, Yahoo News, and hundreds of other news outlets. Dr. Langman writes a blog for Psychology Today. His research on school shooters has been cited in congressional testimony on Capitol Hill. His book, Why Kids Kill: Inside the Minds of School Shooters, is being translated into German, Dutch and Finnish.
